Method 3: Reset Windows 7 Password with Passper WinSenior. Project Summary: The mentoring program for this K07 is designed to further the candidate's development as an independent investigator. The candidate, a primary care clinical investigator, is seeking new mentoring in three areas: development of the conduct of health services research, qualitative research methodologies and community-based interventions. The overall goal of the mentoring program is to enhance the candidate's ability to examine and disseminate complex policy and system change questions in behavioral and social sciences. The program builds upon the candidate's training in health services, health economics and health disparities and community-based interventions. The candidate's mentors have provided strong support through the mentored career development proposal. The resources of the Division of Population Medicine, the Center for Health Services Research, the Center for Education and Research on Therapeutics, the Center for Clinical Epidemiology and Biostatistics, and the Geriatrics Institute at Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center and Harvard Medical School, and the resources of the Harvard School of Dental Medicine and Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital provide unique opportunities for the candidate. The specific aims of the candidate's mentored career development are: Specific Aim 1: Adopt qualitative and mixed methodologies to provide new knowledge on complex topics for behavioral and social science research in health services, health economics and health disparities Specific Aim 2: Apply conceptual and theoretical models to data sets and develop models of intervention evaluation in health services, health economics and health disparities Specific Aim 3: Enhance knowledge of health services research and health policy advocacy for a career in complex policy change. Research Career Development Plan: The candidate's prior work has involved the conduct of a randomized clinical trial of pharmacists' interventions to improve patient adherence to statins in primary care and a randomized trial of a physical activity intervention for frail elders. She has applied quality improvement methods to diabetes prevention and control, using the concept of peer support to model an intervention. The proposal examines a new topic, to support 6d1f23a050
