Translated into English from the Arabic original, this book offers a comprehensive encyclopedia of the most important Sufi saints. The first part focuses on Makhdum al-Arif, Ibn al-Arabi and Ahmad Sirhindi. All three are represented by full-page paintings. Other Sufi luminaries like Sana Jiwani, Shah Waliullah, and Jalaluddin Rumi also receive full-page portraits. The second part concentrates on the world of Sufism. The pages feature a long section on the Mevlevi Order, its founder Mevlana Jalal ad-Din Mevlana, and other major figures within the order. Another section presents the life and writings of Shams Tabrrizi, the brilliant teacher who effectively taught young seekers the way of mysticism and brought Sufism to the rest of the world, starting in Persia. The last section features the Indian guru of Sufism Rumi, pictures of contemporary teachers of the original Sufi path like Hazrat Inayat Khan, and of the late Sufi scholar A. C. Hamid Nadvi. Shams Tabrrizi and Mevlana Jalal ad-Din Mevlana are shown again in black and white, as a further demonstration of the
